

Psychiatric Nurse Interview Questions And Answers Guide.

Global Guideline.

<https://globalguideline.com/>

Psychiatric Nurse Job Interview Preparation Guide.

Question # 1

Explain me about a time you stepped into a leadership role?

Answer:-

This doesn't need to be anything official. Think about a time when you stepped up to the plate and took charge of a situation. What was the circumstance? What made you take the lead? Who was involved? Did any opportunities arise from this situation?

Read More Answers.

Question # 2

Please explain about a time you were under a lot of pressure. What was going on, and how did you get through it?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a time you were stressed and under pressure to perform. Explain the situation and why you felt pressured. Describe step-by-step the actions you took to make it through the situation. What was the result? What did you learn? What might you do differently now?

Read More Answers.

Question # 3

Tell me an example of an awkward situation at work. How did you remove yourself from the situation?

Answer:-

Tell a story about the uncomfortable situation. What was the situation and why did it feel awkward. Explain the steps you took to leave the situation. What were the results of your actions? What did you learn?

Read More Answers.

Question # 4

Tell us example of an important goal you set for yourself. Did you accomplish that goal? How did you ensure that you accomplished it?

Answer:-

Make sure the goal you share is related to your career. Explain the steps you took to accomplish your goal. What challenges did you face? How did you feel once you accomplished your goal?

Read More Answers.

Question # 5

Tell us a time when you received negative feedback and turned it into something positive?

Answer:-

Discuss a time at work when you received negative feedback. What was the feedback and circumstances surrounding the feedback? Who gave you the negative feedback? How did it make you feel? What did you do as a result of the feedback?

Read More Answers.

Question # 6

Tell us an example of a mistake you've made? How did you handle it?

Answer:-

It is important to admit that you make mistakes and to own up to them. Talk about the specific mistake and why it happened. What was your role in the mistake? How did you know that you made a mistake? Who was involved? What did you learn? What have you done to improve? What were the results?

Read More Answers.

Question # 7

Tell me what do you contribute to your patients?

Answer:-

Psychiatric Nurse Interview Questions And Answers

Every nurse has a common job description, but you must possess something unique. This question allows the interviewer to get a sense of what makes you stand out among the other job applicants.

"I want my patients to have the best experience possible and I consider that my sole responsibility. I will go above and beyond to see to it that my patients are well taken care of. I believe dedication is an integral part of being a successful nurse and providing the best care under any circumstances. Also, I offer a listening ear that they can feel comfortable confiding in. As well as knowing I will wholeheartedly advocate for them, if necessary."

Read More Answers.

Question # 8

Tell us an example of a time when you had to interact with a patient who was in great mental distress?

Answer:-

Taking care of people who are experiencing severe mental anguish happens so regularly that it's difficult to pinpoint specific instances. However, I remember helping treat a homeless man who was causing an uproar in the ward. He had been diagnosed with bipolar disorder and was unable to afford the medication. The lack of access to the necessary pills, combined with the fear of being in a strange place, meant that this individual was a danger to himself and others. After securely restraining him to prevent injuries, I followed a doctor's order and administered a drug to ease the patient's panic. However, the soothing words and understanding attitude I displayed while working with the patient were arguably just as potent as the pharmaceutical intervention. After the man's discharge, he found me and offered thanks for treating him with such compassion.

Read More Answers.

Question # 9

Please explain what qualities do you need to be a good professional?

Answer:-

First, think about the qualities you expect from a nurse, and would want from someone caring for you or a member of your family. Think about things like confidentiality and how that might be different from secrecy. Think about what the pitfalls might be for nurses engaging in social media like Facebook and Twitter. Turn the question on its head and think what might constitute being unprofessional.

Read More Answers.

Question # 10

Explain me a situation when you had to work closely with a difficult coworker. How did you handle the situation? Were you able to build a relationship with this person?

Answer:-

Never talk bad about anyone during an interview. Explain the situation and why the individual was difficult. Share how you handled the situation. Try to turn anything negative into a positive. What did you learn from the situation? What might you do differently now? What was the "silver lining"? Were you able to talk through your differences? Did you become friends?

Read More Answers.

Question # 11

Explain me a time you were faced with a patient who chose not to communicate or disclose important information. How did you handle the situation and what was the outcome?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a patient you worked within a similar situation. What step-by-step actions did you take to obtain the information from the patient? What were the results of your actions?

Read More Answers.

Question # 12

Tell us your experience with a very ill patient who required a lot of your time. How did you manage this patient's care while ensuring your other patients were adequately cared for?

Answer:-

Talk about the patient's care and why they needed much of your time. What was the illness, trauma or injury? How did you ensure that this patient received quality care? How did you manage your other patients?

Read More Answers.

Question # 13

Tell us a challenging situation or problem where you took the lead to correct it instead of waiting for someone else to do it?

Answer:-

Talk about a time when you decided to take the initiative to complete a task or make an important decision. What was your motivator? What action steps did you take? What were the results of your actions?

Read More Answers.

Question # 14

Tell me a time when you had to put aside personal needs to ensure the psychiatry team continued to function smoothly at your workplace?

Answer:-

About a year ago, on the night of my fifth wedding anniversary, I had to cover a shift for a coworker who suddenly got ill while tending to patients. Pitching in meant I had to tell my spouse we would need to shift our dinner plans to the next night when I was off. Although this initially caused disappointment, there was also a mutual understanding that if I did not cover that shift, the entire department would have struggled. Thanks to my decision, the department was able to continue delivering top-quality patient care, which was ultimately recognized by the nursing supervisor.

Read More Answers.

Question # 15

Can you explain me what approach do you take in communicating with people who do not know medical jargon? Give an example of a time you explained medical terminology to someone who is not medically trained?

Answer:-

Explain step-by-step how you've performed in a similar situation. What specific words and terminology did you use? How did you know that the individual understood your explanation?

Read More Answers.

Question # 16

Please explain with example of a time when you were able to successfully persuade a patient to agree to something. How did you persuade this person?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a specific time when you had a difficult time getting a patient to agree to something at work. What was the situation and what did they need to agree to? What specific actions did you take to get them to agree? What was the result?

Read More Answers.

Question # 17

Tell us have you ever felt dissatisfied with your work as a Nurse? What could have been done to make it better?

Answer:-

Most nurses encounter difficulties while working. Talk about a time when you felt dissatisfied with your work. What were the circumstances and what happened? What was your role? Why did you feel dissatisfied? What would you do differently now? What did you learn?

Read More Answers.

Question # 18

Suppose our psychiatric nurses get opportunities to serve as peer mentors after they've been at the hospital for at least a year. Would you be a good fit for such a role?

Answer:-

Absolutely. Throughout my career as a psychiatric nurse, I've been supportive of nurses who are just entering the field. Even in nursing school, I helped friends study psychiatric nurse interview questions before they met with hiring managers in hopes of getting their first jobs. Peer mentoring helped me get where I am today and I want to reciprocate.

Read More Answers.

Question # 19

Tell us what you think a Mental Health nurse does and what type of people or groups you might work with ?

Answer:-

Mental health nursing isn't simply about sitting down with people in one-to-one situations and counselling them. We work with people across all age groups with many different needs and problems. Show that you have an understanding of what it is that mental health nurses do. What sort of environments do we work in? What sort of things might we do by way of helping people? Have an appreciation of current issues in the news such as anti-stigma campaigns, the effect of living in society with a diagnosis.

Read More Answers.

Question # 20

Tell me what do you find most difficult about being a Nurse? How do you overcome this difficulty?

Answer:-

Be honest and talk about the most difficult component of nursing. Maybe it's working with a specific patient population. Or, acting in a leadership role. Whatever it is to you, always make sure to talk about the steps and actions you've taken to cope with the difficulty.

Read More Answers.

Question # 21

Tell us about a time when you had to rely on written communication to explain yourself to your team or to a patient?

Answer:-

Talk about a time when you successfully relied on written (or typed) communication. What were the circumstances? What was being discussed? How did you ensure success?

Read More Answers.

Question # 22

Explain me about a time when you didn't know the answer to something at work? How did you go about finding the information?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a time when you did not know the answer. Explain step-by-step the action you took to find the information. Talk about the result of your actions.

Read More Answers.

Question # 23

Explain about a conflict within your healthcare team. What was the conflict and how did you handle it?

Answer:-

Explain the conflict surrounding the situation. Who was involved? What was your role? Did anything positive come from this? What did you learn?

Psychiatric Nurse Interview Questions And Answers

Read More Answers.

Question # 24

Tell us a time you had to interact with a hostile patient. How did you handle the situation and what was the outcome?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a hostile patient and your step-by-step actions. What was the patient doing that was hostile? How did you react? How did you feel? What procedures did you follow to interact with the patient? What was the result of your actions?

Read More Answers.

Question # 25

Explain me a time when you went over and above your job requirements. What motivated you to put forth the extra effort?

Answer:-

Talk about a specific instance when you went out of your way for your job or for a patient. What were the circumstances? Why did you choose to take the action? What did you do? What were the results?

Read More Answers.

Question # 26

Can you explain what motivates you as a psychiatric nurse, even during the toughest shifts?

Answer:-

My motivation as a psychiatric nurse comes from a deep desire to do the very best I can in every situation I'm faced with. That often means calming agitated patients on a daily basis, but I even had my inner drive to succeed before getting my first job. I tirelessly studied psychiatric nurse interview questions so I was well prepared for what I was asked, in a situation that was very stressful for most of my nursing school peers.

Read More Answers.

Question # 27

Tell us how you normally respond to feedback from superiors such as physicians and charge nurses?

Answer:-

I always listen thoroughly to the feedback I receive and incorporate it into my actions moving forward. However, if it seems the superior does not have a complete understanding of a patient's treatment or status, I respectfully respond in ways that make it clear I don't let my pride, nor fear of speaking up, interfere with my goal of providing the best possible care.

Read More Answers.

Question # 28

Explain me a time when you were particularly proud of your healthcare team? What was your role in this situation?

Answer:-

Describe the circumstances and actions step-by-step. What happened to make you feel proud? What was your role? Who was involved? What was the result?

Read More Answers.

Question # 29

Tell us about a time you worked in a fast-paced setting. How do you prioritize tasks while maintaining excellent patient care?

Answer:-

Give an example of a time you had to prioritize your tasks quickly. Explain your thought process in details and why you chose to complete the duties in such order.

Read More Answers.

Question # 30

Tell us how do you deal with stress on the job?

Answer:-

In the field of nursing, you can come across many obstacles that may be stressful. The interviewer wants to gauge how you handle tense situations in a fast-paced environment. Show them that you persevere in tough situations.

"I think knowing what the job entails and being prepared allows you to be better equipped when stressful situations do arise. Honestly, a little stress is expected in our field. If I feel like I am getting to the point of being stressed out, I will take a few deep breaths and remind myself why I got into nursing in the first place. Although there may be a few trying moments here and there, the impact nurses have on people's lives is well worth it."

Read More Answers.

Question # 31

Explain me what do you know about our Mental Health Nursing degree?

Answer:-

This is an important one to get right. You are asking to come on a course for the next three years of your life. That's some commitment so we want to be assured that you understand what it is that you are committing yourself to. We're looking for people who are serious about a career in mental health nursing and are fully aware of the commitment it requires. We expect you to have researched the course at this University, attended an Open Day and thought about how you plan to manage the academic and personal demands of the course. Talk positively about why you want to study here and what you're interested in learning.

Read More Answers.

Question # 32

Explain me what is one professional accomplishment that you are most proud of and why?

Answer:-

Tell a story about one of your most noteworthy accomplishments at work. What was the accomplishment? What steps did you take to achieve it? Who else was involved in this accomplishment? What happened as a result of the accomplishment?

Read More Answers.

Question # 33

Tell us a time when you anticipated potential problems with a patient and initiated preventative measures?

Answer:-

Share a specific story about a patient. Explain how you assessed the pending problems. Describe step-by-step the actions you took to prevent the problem. What was the result of your actions?

Read More Answers.

Question # 34

Tell us about a time when a patient's family was dissatisfied with your care. How did you handle that situation?

Answer:-

Make sure to explain the situation in detail including both perspectives (the patient's family and yours). Never talk bad about patients or their family. Take ownership if you indeed did something wrong. Share any positives that came from this - what did you learn? What would you do differently now? How did you turn this into a positive?

Read More Answers.

Question # 35

Tell us why do you want to be a Mental Health nurse?

Answer:-

We're looking for people who can explain clearly and with conviction why they want to be a mental health nurse. We are interested in people who want to work with people rather than a person's fascination with how the brain works. Avoid general statements such as 'I want to help people' and tell us how you might like to help people and how you may have helped people in the past. Give examples how you do this and how you match the requirements of the role.

Read More Answers.

Question # 36

Explain me a time when you were the resident medical expert. What did you do to make sure everyone was able to understand you?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a time when others were relying on your medical expertise. Talk about the specific circumstances and words you used to ensure that they understood the language. What did you talk about? What was the result?

Read More Answers.

Question # 37

Tell us about a time a patient or their family were particularly pleased and appreciative of your care?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a family who was happy with your care. What did you do in particular that they were pleased with? How did you know they were happy? What were the results of this situation?

Read More Answers.

Question # 38

Explain me how would you handle a patient that constantly complains about pain?

Answer:-

There is bound to be a difficult patient so you need to know how to handle such a situation. Use your past experience to show how you have previously overcome a similar circumstance.

"It all comes down to reassurance and proper care. This reminds me of a patient I had a few years ago. She told me about the excruciating pain she was experiencing several times. My first thought was to make sure we were doing our jobs right so I conferred with the attending doctor to ensure the patient's pain was being managed in the most effective way possible. Then, I listened and empathized with my patient while simultaneously reassuring her we were doing everything possible to ease her discomfort."

Read More Answers.

Question # 39

Please explain a time when you had not communicated well. How did you correct the situation?

Answer:-

No one is perfect, we all have flaws. Discuss a time when you experienced miscommunication at work. What were the circumstances? How did you know you did not communicate well? What did you learn? What were the results?

Read More Answers.

Question # 40

Tell us a time when your facility was undergoing some change. How did that impact you, and how did you adapt?

Answer:-

Talk about a time your facility changed. Maybe they were acquired by another facility. Perhaps they transitioned to a new computer system. Describe the change and the steps you took to adapt to such change.

Read More Answers.

Question # 41

Tell us what is the most difficult part of being a nurse?

Answer:-

This can be a tricky question to answer because you want to be honest and genuine, while still showing that you love your job.

"I absolutely love being a nurse, but as with all jobs challenges will cross my path. The hardest part of being a nurse is seeing a patient in pain or unhappy and being limited in the extent I can comfort them. The reality is that as a professional I can only do so much. However, I realize this helps me so that I do not become too emotionally invested in my patients."

Read More Answers.

Question # 42

Please explain about a time you failed. How did you deal with this situation?

Answer:-

Share a story about when you experience failure. Talk about your feeling and why you felt that you failed. Discuss anything positive that came from this failure? What did you learn from failing? What might you do differently now?

Read More Answers.

Question # 43

Please explain me a time you provided effective patient or family education?

Answer:-

Tell a story about a time when you knew your patient or family retained your teachings. How did you know that you effectively communicated the piece of education?

Read More Answers.

Question # 44

Explain me a time when you felt overwhelmed with your work or patient-load. What did you do?

Answer:-

Give a specific example of a time you were overwhelmed. Explain step-by-step the actions you took to overcome this feeling and to focus on the task at hand.

Read More Answers.

Question # 45

Tell us what are necessary qualities for a nurse to possess?

Answer:-

The answer to this question will reflect your work priorities and what characteristics you feel to be most important.

"Over time, I have seen that excellent communication is first and foremost, whether I am comforting a patient or discussing treatments with a doctor. Another important quality is organization. In such a sensitive environment, one mistake could be the difference between life and death. Lastly, patience is essential to possess. You must be a people person and be able to endure any possible turn of events."

Read More Answers.

Health Care Most Popular Interview Topics.

- 1 : Hospital Cleaner Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 2 : Caregiver Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 3 : Case Manager Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 4 : Hospice Nurse Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 5 : First Aid Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 6 : Health Unit Coordinator Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 7 : Behavioral Therapist Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 8 : Personal Care Assistant Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 9 : Hospital Cashier Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.
- 10 : Patient Care Technician Frequently Asked Interview Questions and Answers Guide.

About Global Guideline.

Global Guideline is a platform to develop your own skills with thousands of job interview questions and web tutorials for fresher's and experienced candidates. These interview questions and web tutorials will help you strengthen your technical skills, prepare for the interviews and quickly revise the concepts. Global Guideline invite you to unlock your potentials with thousands of Interview Questions with Answers and much more. Learn the most common technologies at Global Guideline. We will help you to explore the resources of the World Wide Web and develop your own skills from the basics to the advanced. Here you will learn anything quite easily and you will really enjoy while learning. Global Guideline will help you to become a professional and Expert, well prepared for the future.

* This PDF was generated from <https://GlobalGuideline.com> at November 29th, 2023

* If any answer or question is incorrect or inappropriate or you have correct answer or you found any problem in this document then don't hesitate feel free and e-mail us we will fix it.

You can follow us on FaceBook for latest Jobs, Updates and other interviews material.
www.facebook.com/InterviewQuestionsAnswers

Follow us on Twitter for latest Jobs and interview preparation guides
<https://twitter.com/InterviewGuide>

Best Of Luck.

Global Guideline Team
<https://GlobalGuideline.com>
Info@globalguideline.com