Question # 3

You must have to ask that is this a new position or has fallen vacant by the separation of the last employee?

Answer:-

Advantage: This question would help you in understanding if the position is available because of the expansion or due to the separation of the last employee. If it is vacant after the separation of the last employee, it would be good for you to know the reason. This would also give the recruiter an impression that you are careful in selecting the job.
