Question # 6

Try to explain motherhood requires a break!

Answer:-

The job market still respects motherhood. May be, you will not get a start from where you left your career but getting a job should not be a problem. You can explain this to the prospective employer during the interview.

The bottom line is, draft your CV in such a way that the prospective employer is impressed with your skills and achievements. In spite of having a gap in your employment, she should be willing to see you. Note that you should not lie in your CV or during the interview but you definitely have the right to remain silent. Once you are there for a face-to-face discussion, it is up to you to convince the interviewer.
