Question # 2

Why do you want to work as Highway Police Officer?

Answer:-

I have always appreciated and admired those who put their lives on the line to protect our communities. My interest really piqued in law enforcement however, after I witnessed a domestic dispute and watched the responding officers diffuse the situation. I heard the calling as I saw the officers control the situation and remove one of the parties from harm's way. It was then I knew that this is what I was meant to do.

Question # 3

What's your greatest weakness as Highway Police Officer?

Answer:-

I've never been very comfortable with public speaking - which as you know, can be a hindrance in this field. Realizing this was a problem, I asked my previous department if I could enroll in a speech workshop. I took the class, and was able to overcome my lifelong fear. Since then, I've given several safety presentations to school children across the county. I still don't love it, but no one else can tell!

Question # 4

What is your greatest failure, and what did you learn from it as Highway Police Officer?

Answer:-

When I was in college, I took an art class to supplement my curriculum. I didn't take it very seriously, and assumed that, compared to my Engineering classes, it would be a walk in the park. My failing grades at midterm showed me otherwise. I'd even jeopardized my scholarship status. I knew I had to get my act together. I spent the rest of the semester making up for it, ended up getting a decent grade in the class. I learned that no matter what I'm doing, I should strive to do it to the best of my ability. Otherwise, it's not worth doing at all.

Question # 5

Explain how would your friends describe you?

Answer:-

My friends would probably say that I'm extremely persistent - I've never been afraid to keep going back until I get what I want. In college I worked as a program developer, recruiting keynote speakers for major conferences. I usually got one rejection after another - this was just the nature of the job. But I really wanted the big players - so I wouldn't take no for an answer. I kept going back to them every time there was a new company on board, or some new value proposition. Eventually, many of them actually said "yes" - the program turned out to be so great that we doubled our attendees from the year before. A lot of people might have given up after the first rejection, but it's just not in my nature. If I know something is possible, I have to keep trying until I get it.

Question # 6

Tell me do you have any police record?

Answer:-

A police record means you have made a crime or violation action before. So, does it affect on your chance of becoming a Police or the success of your interview? Yes, it does! So how do you fix it? how do you handle the question?

Highway Police Officer Interview Questions And Answers

If you do not have any police record, the problem will become nothing; instead, it will only do good for you. But on the contrary, if you have one, don't try to hide it from the interviewer. Be straight about your mistake in the past and show that you are now aware of your action and have done many things to improve yourself. Don't be too much worried about the fact that you have made a violation of law in the past; instead, emphasizing on your effort of improving to correct such an act.

Question # 30

Tell us about your qualifications and academic qualifications?

Answer:-

Now, how will you deal with this question? First, you have to know the story of police: you have to complete a training course in a police academy and get certificate before being able to become a Police. Then, you have to know that being a Police doesn't mean you are already good yet. You have to fight crimes and action against the laws, you are required to continuously improve yourself to be able to remain in the police squad.

A Police can be classified into two groups: intelligence (desk-job) or action (street-walking). If you have a special intelligence talent or belong to academic education background, you should choose the first rather than the second. It will be more effective and useful if you are working as a desk Police.

Question # 58

Why did you choose the police career?

Answer:-

Take a review on the following example: "There are fewer and fewer people in the world ready themselves to fight evil for the sake of the society, which should be a work of honor and conscience. I would like to do something like that, something like a lawman can do to protect the security and safety of the society." Remember do not sound too much hyped-up when speaking like this.

And why the Police? But not others like a politician? You can answer this like Police is your career choice because people need protection from evils and crimes in the world and you urge for the safety and security of the society in a direct and positive manner.
