Legitimate Work at Home Job Interview Preparation Guide.

Question # 1

What is legitimacy?

Answer:-

Legitimacy is the popular acceptance of an authority, usually a governing law or a regime. Whereas "authority" denotes a specific position in an established government, the term "legitimacy" denotes a system of government.

Question # 2

Tell me about yourself?

Answer:-

You need to have a short statement prepared in your mind. Be careful that it does not sound rehearsed. Limit it to work-related items unless instructed otherwise. Talk about things you have done and jobs you have held that relate to the position you are interviewing for. Start with the item farthest back and work up to the present.

Question # 3

Why did you leave your last job?

Answer:-

Stay positive regardless of the circumstances. Never refer to a major problem with management and never speak ill of supervisors, co-workers or the organization. If you do, you will be the one looking bad. Keep smiling and talk about leaving for a positive reason such as an opportunity, a chance to do something special or other forward-looking reasons.

Question # 4

What experience do you have in this field of working at home?

Answer:-

Speak about specifics that relate to the position you are applying for. If you do not have specific experience, get as close as you can.

Question # 5

Do you think you are successful in working at home?

Answer:-

You should always answer yes and briefly explain why. A good explanation is that you have set goals, and you have met some and are on track to achieve the others.

Question # 6

Are you applying for other home based jobs?

Answer:-

Be honest but do not spend a lot of time in this area. Keep the focus on this job and what you can do for this organization. Anything else is a distraction.

Question # 7

What do you know about this organization as a legitimate worker?

Answer:-

This question is one reason to do some research on the organization before the interview. Find out where they have been and where they are going. What are the current issues and who are the major players?

Question # 8

How is your home environment?

Answer:-

I have two school age children, who are out of the house at school most of the day. My dog is normally outside in our fenced in yard, when I am working and need to make calls.

Question # 9

Do you have a home office?

Answer:-

There best answers:

* Yes, I do. We converted a spare room over our garage into an office, where we have a computer, printer/scanner/copy/fax machine, and phone. It is nicely secluded from the rest of the house.

* I have a spot with all my equipment where I keep things organized.

* I have an area removed from the rest of the house where I can work quietly.

Question # 10

What do you like the best about working from home?

Answer:-

I really like the flexibility in hours. I have always been a night owl, and working set hours is difficult for me. I can accomplish much more on my own timetable.

Question # 11

What do you like the least about working from home?

Answer:-

The thing that I find I like the least is when I have a question, and can not walk down the hallway to ask my supervisor about it. Sometimes it is frustrating to play email or phone tag.

Question # 12

What interests you about working for this company?

Answer:-

Your company is one of the leaders in e-widget sales. Having worked in e-widget manufacturing for the last ten years, I would welcome the opportunity to use that experience in another sector of the market.

Question # 16

What are the advantages of a work at home position?

Answer:-

Working at home has several advantages for me. I like the flexibility in hours. I am an early riser, and I can accomplish a lot before most people are in the office. I enjoy working by myself in a quiet place, without the distractions of a busy office. I like not having to drive to work.

Question # 17

What are the disadvantages of a work at home position?

Answer:-

- * One of the disadvantages of a work at home position is that you lose the daily face to face interaction with your colleagues.
- * When you work at home, you need to make a little extra effort to stay connected with your colleagues and the direction of your team.
- * At home there can be some distractions. I am fortunate that my office is removed from the house, and I can work there undisturbed.

Question # 18

Why should you check the dates to determine work legitimacy?

Answer:-

If a decent-paying job is posted, there will be numerous, immediate responses, which means listings are often taken down within a week or two of being posted. If a business does not find the perfect candidate right away and leaves the listing up for a long time, there may be a reason why no one has landed the position.

Question # 19

Why should you protect your financial information?

Answer:-

Anyone asking for credit card information or personal information straight off the bat cannot be trusted. If you have not even interviewed for the job or have not secured the job yet, there should be no reason why you are handing a stranger your personal information.

Question # 20

Why to set up a separate email account?

Answer:-

It is a good idea to set up a specific email account for your applications. With a separate email account, "employers" who could potentially be fake will not be able to use your more widely-used email account to spam you or steal your identity.

Question # 21

Why to do due diligence before sending your resume?

Answer:-

Do not send your resume right away unless you have verified that the job offer is real. Since your resume provides information about you such as your name, school, email address, home address and your phone number, thieves can use this information to steal your money and your identity.

Question # 22

How would you trust your instincts?

Answer:-

You have probably come across at least a few of those "too good to be true" ads that offer free money right away and other benefits at no cost or hassle to you, even if you have no previous work experience. If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Question # 23

Why should you not get too personal?

Answer:-

Interesting jobs that require an employer to get to know you on a more personal basis, such as becoming a personal assistant or modeling for a local brand. Sometimes an employer has a legitimate need to see a photo or ask questions about your personal interests. Just be extremely cautious. When it starts sounding more like a cheesy, over-the-top dating profile instead of a job listing, then it is highly recommended that you question the legitimacy of the personal assistant position that you are applying for.

Question # 24

Why should you get agreements in writing?

Answer:-

It is also a good idea to put verbal agreements to paper, especially when dealing with a small, new business or person for the first time. This is to ensure that you get paid as agreed for the work you perform. Instead of meeting in person, send an email in response to a listing to show a business your interest - do not be afraid to ask questions.

Question # 25

Why should you speak up?

Answer:-

If you have concerns, talk to your potential employer about them, especially when dealing with a sole business owner or with a business that is run from a home. For example, do not be afraid to express that you would be more comfortable meeting in a public area. Then see how open the person is to your concerns.

Question # 26

Why to do some detective work?

Answer:-

Break out those detective skills when checking out the legitimacy of a job listing - do your research on the company well. Be cautious if the business is claiming to be a big, hotshot company and yet there is no trace of them online.

Question # 27

What is your philosophy towards work?

Answer:-

The interviewer is not looking for a long or flowery dissertation here. Do you have strong feelings that the job gets done? Yes. That is the type of answer that works best here. Short and positive, showing a benefit to the organization.

Question # 28

Explain how you would be an asset to this organization while working from home?

Answer:-

You should be anxious for this question. It gives you a chance to highlight your best points as they relate to the position being discussed. Give a little advance thought to this relationship.

Question # 29

How would you look for signs of unprofessionalism?

Answer:-

Watch out for signs of unprofessionalism, including the following red flags: asking to meet at night over drinks, dodging your questions about the company and their mission, and texting you pleasantries completely unrelated to your line of work (even before you start working). Of course, a lot depends on the type of work you will be doing, but if you feel like your interaction is inappropriate to the setting and to what your work relationship calls for, then it probably is.
