Question # 1

Please tell me what are visual arts?

Answer:-

The visual arts are art forms such as ceramics, drawing, painting, sculpture, printmaking, design, crafts, photography, video, film-making and architecture. Many artistic disciplines (performing arts, conceptual art, textile arts) involve aspects of the visual arts as well as arts of other types.

Question # 2

Why is the color red important in artwork and photographs?

Answer:-

Perhaps it is because in nature animals (and therefore humans) associate the color red with ripe fruit. Since humans were predominantly hunter gatherers throughout most of our history as a species, it is unsurprising that red has a special meaning. Perhaps that is why a red traffic light makes us stop and take notice.

Question # 3

What is the easy way to tell an image is digital or analogue?

Answer:-

Suppose if you are looking at the image then it is analogue. The human eye cannot "see" a digital image. In order for it to be seen the digital data must be converted to analogue on a screen or on paper.

Question # 4

What are some tips for starting off in photography?

Answer:-

You need to do a number of things:

* Learn how to use the light-meter in the camera to choose a good exposure balancing the shutter speed and lens aperture.

* As you learn how to use the light-meter, practice over and over so that eventually you can do this intuitively.

* There are many other fundamentals of photography which you need to learn so that you can spend your time creating amazing images, not fiddling with your camera.

Question # 7

Visual Arts Interview Questions And Answers

On spec mean define creating art?

Answer:-

This term could be used either in a situation in which a patron has said he will not pay unless he likes the work, or in one in which there is no patron. The artist is just hoping that he will eventually be able to sell the work to someone.

It was in the 19th century that artists began painting largely without any specific patron in mind but rather to place their works in exhibitions and galleries in the hope of attracting buyers. It had happened before, but prior to the 19th century, most paintings and sculptures were produced to someone's order.

Question # 8

Do you know how to develop film without film-developing chemicals?

Answer:-

Photographic film and photographic paper can display an image after a super prolonged exposure. This is because light has the ability to separate the silver salts (silver halogens) that makeup the light sensitive coat that is common to film and photo papers. You can demonstrate this for yourself. Best if you procure some black & white photo paper and a black & white film negative that displays an image. Place the photo paper outside in the sunlight and tape the film negative on its surface. No negative? Place leaves or coins on the paper. The natural action of the sunlight will cause the paper to darken. Same if you substitute film for the paper.

Question # 9

How to illustrate obsession in visual arts?

Answer:-

You could draw an illustration of a pencil and the pencil in the picture is drawing a picture of you with a thought cloud above your head with the word art but really draw the letters in a decorative, artistic way. Implying that you are so obsessed with art that you create a drawing of you drawing yourself daydreaming about art.

Question # 10

Do you know why electricity can not pass through woods?

Answer:-

Electrical conduction requires free electrons to flow. Solids that readily give up electrons are called metals. Electricity can also pass through liquids if they contain free ions. So totally dry wood will not conduct but otherwise it will conduct slightly, depending on how much moisture is in it.

Question # 12

Which is the best camera for model photography?

Answer:-

Digital SLR is best. The most used lens when shooting fashion in the studio or on location is the 24-70 mm f/2.8 which costs about three times what the entry level canon 1200D or nikon D3300 costs with its entry level 18-55 mm lens.

If you are shooting runway fashion models, then sometimes the 70-200 mm f/2.8 comes in handy. Most fashion photographers have both of those lenses, although it is not necessary to buy them at the same time. Start with the 24-70 mm first and then go from there.

Question # 15

Tell me how to get good picture straight out of the camera?

Answer:-

Visual Arts Interview Questions And Answers

There are some steps to take:

- * Learn to use the camera's light-meter to assure that you get the right exposure.
- * Fill the whole frame with the subject of your photo. Do NOT waste any of the space in the frame.
- * Spend some time becoming visually literate. You can do that by taking classes in art or studying composition and design.
- * Think before you press the shutter release. If the image does not look good in the viewfinder, it will not look any different after you press the shutter release.

Question # 16

What do you do? Suppose if you are doing an oil painting and decide to start over?

Answer:-

A much cheaper alternative to canvas is plywood. Just get any old piece of plywood from a timber yard. Size it with wall paper glue and away you go. Do not worry about the brown color, that will go once you paint over it. Plywood/Board/Hardboard has several advantages over canvas.

Question # 17

How to be a creative and skill photographer?

Answer:-

Creativity and skill are two distinct characteristics. One may be quite skilled at using a camera and lighting. Yet the product might be uninspiring. Creativity involves producing a photo in such a way that nobody has quite done. These days, it can also involve fine art post production manipulations. A skill can generally be taught to any competent individual. Creativity is at least partly inborn.

Question # 25

What technique is used for shading in visual arts?

Answer:-

There are many different techniques. One is with my finger, I go from dark to light and blend it out. There is also a shading pencil and it is just paper very tightly packed together into a pencil and it works very well on shading and again, I go from light to dark. Shading depends on where your lighting is like in reality, if the sun is in the top left corner, your darkest parts will be on the other side of the paper, so to the right and it should slowly fade as you move towards the left.
